

Mutton Bustin' - aka Sheep riding - will be held Saturday, August 3rd, halfway through the Rodeo performance. The Rodeo starts at 6:30 pm at the Adams County Fairgrounds.

Only 10 entries will be allowed, with the first 10 people to call in starting at 8 am Monday, July 29th.

Riders need to be 7 years or younger.

Rider and at least one parent or legal guardian need to come to the RZ trailer, east side of arena, at 6pm to sign a waiver. Waivers release Hettinger Chamber and all involved from liability. Kids are responsible to bring their own gear if needed. Gear allowed but not required (protective vest, helmet, chaps and rope to put on sheep; NO SPURS ALLOWED).

There will be some experienced cowboys at bucking chutes if anyone needs help.

When calling to enter rider please ask any questions you might have.
